Outsourcing Advisor Pace Harmon Clinches 2009 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100 Recognition

Premier Supply Chain Publication Honors Pace Harmon for Helping Companies Weather Current Economy and Prepare to Scale for Future Growth

VIENNA, Va., June 25, 2009 – Pace Harmon, an outsourcing advisory services firm providing guidance on complex outsourcing and strategic sourcing transactions, supply chain process efficiency, and vendor governance, today announced that it has been named to the 2009 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100. The annual list recognizes supply chain solution and service providers that are helping their customers and clients both respond to the downturn and position themselves for growth ahead.

“In the current down economy, companies that can maintain their profit margins with falling demand, as well as quickly ramp back up to meet increasing demand when the economy rebounds, are the ones that will remain successful in the long run,” said Marc Tanowitz, principal, Pace Harmon. “We’re advising our clients on how to establish global supply chain execution and management strategies to create scalable and sustainable competitive advantages.”

Supply chain optimization is one of Pace Harmon’s primary specialty areas, as the firm helps companies dramatically reduce expenditures, increase operational productivity and establish clear visibility into their supply chain performance. Pace Harmon’s clients include Fortune 500 and select high growth middle-market companies spanning industries such as Telecommunications, Health Care, Financial Services, Manufacturing, Technology, and Energy.

The Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100 recognizes a broad range of solutions and services targeted at a variety of industries, addressing the needs of companies of varying sizes, and assisting in the transformation of the diverse mix of the functions that make up the supply chain. The list of honored companies appears in the June/July 2009 print issue.
